TRACY LYNN ALTRINGER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Tracy was a proud 1991 graduate of Crookston High School. She had a rare blood disease that caused liver failure. Tracy had a liver transplant on April 18, 1992, sadly she passed away on February 12, 1998 at the age of 24. Tracy's courage and determination was best demonstrated in her battle against her disease. Tracy will be forever remembered by all that knew and loved her. The Tracy Lynn Altringer Memorial Scholarship was set up to encourage a young person to follow and complete her dream.

This scholarship of $500.00 is available to a graduate of Crookston High School who is pursuing a medical career.
